Pulaski Flex Program

Martin Methodist College offers a full evening program leading to the Associate's or Bachelor's degree. The Pulaski FLEX Program is a convenient and affordable way for working adults to earn a two- or four-year degree while maintaining a full-time job. Bachelor's degrees in Business, Accounting, Childhood Learning (K-6), Human Services, and Psychology are offered. With this program, students attend classes two nights a week. Classes are held on Monday and Thursday evenings and run in eight week modules. There are six modules within a year; therefore applications are accepted year round.

Counseling Center

The mission of the Martin Methodist College Counseling Center is to provide service within the college environment that contributes to academic success, personal growth and to the positive community life of the college. The Counseling Center seeks to provide services that promote independence and stability among students. Both personal counseling and career services are available. Individual counseling is offered for a variety of mental health issues. Group counseling is offered depending on need any given semester and might include topics of drug and alcohol use, anger management, eating disorders, social skills building or other areas of interest.

The Counseling Center also seeks to assist students in all phases of career development. Students are encouraged to seek assistance with career planning early in their college years. Career services include: career counseling, job listings, career publications, job fairs, graduate school fairs, seminars and workshops. The Counseling Center is located in the Starnes Student Union Building on the MMC campus.
