This residential soccer camp is open to boys 12 years and older. Each day the camp will last from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday with each day broken into three two-hour training sessions: morning, afternoon and evening. The morning and afternoon sessions will involve technique training, with skill and decision making through small sided games. Tactical and functional training will be given to the advanced players and teams. The evening session will involve full games in a competitive environment.

The camps encompass the total soccer philosophy, stressing the importance of correct technical training with skill and decision making development through small sided games. Tactical and functional training will be given to advanced players and teams. At the end of each session players have the opportunity to apply what they have learned in a competitive environment.

The camp is directed by Paschal Dunne, a native from Dublin Ireland, who is the men's soccer coach at Martin Methodist College. During his tenure he has accumulated a record of 137-77-16 winning seven conference championships and voted TranSouth Coach of the Year in 2002, 2004 and 2008. Coach Dunne has a Master's Degree in Management from the University of Alabama in Huntsville and was inducted into the UAH Hall of fame in 1996.

Coach Dunne has coached players from club soccer to MLS for the past twenty years. During this time he has accumulated expertise in player development and will pass on his knowledge in a positive environment. Licensed coaches and collegiate players from around the world will staff the camp.
