

2010 RedHawks Soccer Day Camp
Directed by Paschal Dunne
June 21-25 2010
Cost: $75 (includes a t-shirt)

Boys and girls six years of age and older are invited to attend the 2009 RedHawks Soccer Day Camp. The morning session for children ages 6-11 will take place from 9 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. each day, while participants 12 years of age and older will participate in the afternoon session from 4 p.m. – 7 p.m. Check in time will be 30 minutes before the start of each camp on June 21st.

All campers should bring suitable footwear, shin guards and their own soccer ball. Water will be provided for participants but campers may also bring their own coolers of ice and drinks from home.

The camps encompass the total soccer philosophy, stressing the importance of correct technical training with skill and decision making development through small sided games. At the end of each session players have the opportunity to apply what they have learned in a competitive environment.

The camps are directed by Paschal Dunne, a native from Dublin Ireland, who is the men's soccer coach at Martin Methodist College. During his tenure he has accumulated a record of 137-77-16 winning seven conference championships and voted TranSouth Coach of the Year in 2002, 2004 and 2008. Coach Dunne has a Master's Degree in Management from the University of Alabama in Huntsville and was inducted into the UAH Hall of fame in 1996.

Coach Dunne has coached players from club soccer to MLS for the past twenty years. During this time he has accumulated expertise in player development and will pass on his knowledge in a positive environment. Licensed coaches and collegiate players from around the world will staff the camp.
